Message from the President

November 2018

Don't wait until the fourth Thursday in November, to sit with family and friends to give thanks. Make every day a day of Thanksgiving.

--Charmaine J. Forde--

Greetings,

November is a month of either frenzied travel planning for family visits or house cleaning to get ready for Thanksgiving company. Our lives are filled with family gatherings, cooking, and football. Everyone goes pumpkin crazy with beverages and foods, both sweet and savory.

Even with our busy schedules, I hope you find some time to take advantage of the great events in the Triangle area or further afield in North Carolina. An event that I am personally looking forward to attending is the Broadway sensation "Hamilton" featured at the Durham Performing Arts Center from November 6 - December 2, 2018. There are many craft fairs in our area, including: 2018 Carolina Artisan Craft Market on November 2 - 4, 2018 at the Raleigh Convention Center and the Christmas Carousel Holiday Gift Market on November 23 - 25, 2018 at the NC State Fairgrounds. On November 17, 2018 the NC History Museum will host the 23rd Annual American Indian Heritage Celebration. The Grove Park Inn in Asheville displays the winning creations of the 26th Annual National Gingerbread House Competition from Sunday, November 25, 2018 through January 4, 2019. A few years ago, Dick and I were staying at the Grove Park Inn for a meeting while the Gingerbread Houses were on display. The talent and imagination of their creators is amazing and well worth a visit.

Please join us for three upcoming Newcomer activities. The first is our Newcomers Welcome Coffee on November 2, 2018. On November 28, 2018, Sandy Ricci will host our third Pop Up activity, a visit to the North Carolina Art Museum to tour The Beyond: Georgia O'Keeffe and Contemporary Art Exhibit. Prior to the tour, you have the option of participating in a walk of the grounds. Following the tour, you can join us for lunch at the Iris Restaurant at the Museum. Finally, please attend our festive Newcomers Holiday Party on December 6, 2018 at the Cypress Club in Raleigh. Additional details and reservation forms or information on how to RSVP can be found on page 2 and 3 of the Newsletter.

As we enter the midpoint of the Newcomers Club year, our attention is focused on finding volunteers to serve on our board of directors and program committees. One of the board positions that will need to be filled is the Club President. Although I am greatly enjoying being President this year, personal commitments will not allow me to serve another year. If you have an interest in becoming the President or helping our club in any other leadership role, please contact me or any other board member. By serving as a board member, you will ensure the continuing vitality of our club.

I want to wish you a very Happy Thanksgiving and safe travels whether near or far.

*Regards,
Rusine Sinclair*

Monthly Coffee - for new and existing members - make some new friends

Friday, November 2 at 10:00 am. Come help welcome prospective members to the Club and meet some members you might not already know. Following the meeting, members and guests are invited to join those going to lunch to continue socializing.

Carmen Rayfield was our October 5 Welcome Coffee Guest Speaker from Raleigh Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Resources Program. She spoke on the many classes offered throughout our area and the many trips, including day, multiple day, book travel club, SOAR, all at a low cost. Carmen arrived with so much valuable county information for our members, and gave such an informative, enthusiastic presentation that many signed up for activities on the spot! While this was a change in events, our audience had many questions for her during and even after the formal presentation was over. Plans are underway for the SHIP presentation at the Friday, November 2 Newcomers Welcome Coffee. LOOK FOR AN EMAIL BLAST WITH ADDITIONAL DETAILS.
